Part One

1) Identify the following extracts and comment on them with special reference to features like techniques, themes and language.

i. All night your moth – breath

Flickers among the flat pink roses, I wake to listen.

A far sea moves in my ear.

ii. What leaf –fringed legend haunts about thy shape

Of deities or mortals, or of both

In Tempe of the dales of Arcady?

What men or gods are these?

What mad pursuit? What struggle to escape?

iii. He continued scraping his feet vigorously while the three women went upstairs, laughing, to the ladies' dressing room. A light fringe of snow lay like a cape on the shoulders of his overcoat and like toecaps on the toes of his galoshes; and as the buttons of his overcoat slipped with a squeaking noise through the snow....'

iv. EITHER

Now I arise
Sit still, and hear the last of our sea sorrow.
Here in this island we arrived; and here
Have I, thy school master, made thee more profit
Than other princess can, that have more time
For vainer hours, and tutors not so careful.

OR

Sir, I love you more than words can wield the matter;
Dearer than eye-sight, space, and liberty;
Beyond what can be valued, rich or rare;
No less than life, with grace, health, beauty, honour;
As much as child e'er loved, or father found;
A love that makes breath poor, and speech unable;
Beyond all manner of so much I love you.
